DEFINITIONS

"911 emergency dispatcher" means a person employed by a state agency or local government as a public safety dispatcher or 911 operator whose duties and responsibilities include:

- 1. Answering 911 calls;
- 2. Dispatching law enforcement officers, fire rescue services, emergency medical services, and other public safety services to the scene of an emergency;
- 3. Providing real-time information from federal, state, and local crime databases; or
- 4. Supervising or serving as the command officer to a person or persons having such duties and responsibilities.

However, the term does not include administrative support personnel, including, but not limited to, those whose primary duties and responsibilities are in accounting, purchasing, legal, and personnel.

"Employment" means engaged in the service of another for salary or wages subject to withholding, FICA or other lawful deductions.

"Full Time" means a position that exclusively performs the duties and responsibilities of a 911 emergency dispatcher and occupies an entire Full Time Equivalency (FTE) position for the employer.

"State Agency or Local Government" means any department of the executive branch of state government, and any city, county, municipal corporation, public district, or public authority located within this state.

"Supervised" means overseen during the execution of duties as a 911 emergency dispatcher.

"Supervising or Serving as the Command Officer" means engaging in direct or secondary, but not tertiary, supervision of one or more 911 emergency dispatchers in their performance of actions 1-3 as listed in the definition of 911 emergency dispatcher.

"Providing real-time information" means doing so as part of a 24/7/365 program to law enforcement officers while dispatched to or on the scene of an incident.
